

Rodney H. Jones is Professor of Sociolinguistics at the University of Reading. His research interests include discourse analysis, language and digital media, health communication and language and sexuality. He has published twelve books and over eighty journal articles and book chapters. Among his recent publications are Health and Risk Communication: An Applied Linguistic Perspective (Routledge, 2013), Discourse and Digital Practices (Routledge, 2015), and Spoken Discourse (Bloomsbury, 2016). He is the editor of the Routledge Handbook of Language and Creativity. He is particularly interested in the ways media are changing norms and practices around visibility, sexual intimacy, and surveillance.
